Georgia Institute of Technology
School of Chemistry and Biochemistry
Johnson Graduate Student Travel Funds

A request for travel supplements can be made only by a doctoral student within the School of Chemistry and Biochemistry who is presenting (poster or oral) at a conference. The Johnson Graduate Student Travel funds may be used to meet any remaining costs not covered by the research advisor, SGA award, and COS supplement. One Johnson Travel Award per fiscal year is allowed.

Date________________

Name (Please print)__________________________________

Conference Name_____________________________________________________

Location of Conference___________________________________________________

Dates of Conference_____________________________________________________

Total estimated costs for attending conference

Transportation $_______________ Other Travel $_______________

Food & Lodging $_______________

Registration fee $_______________ Total Costs $_______________

Itinerary ____________________________________________________________

Student Traveler Signature ____________________________________________

Faculty Advisor Name: _______________ Faculty Advisor Signature: ___________________________

Approved funds from other sources:

Research Advisor $___________

Student Government Association (SGA)$___________

College of Science Supplement (GTRC) $___________

Please submit this form to MoSE 2222K (Academic Programs Office) once the amounts of the above three awards have been determined. Awards are determined by the Chair of the School of Chemistry and Biochemistry.